

ANDREAS S. KAKOURIS

DIPLOMATIC CAREER

September 2019	High Commissioner to the Court of St. James's
July 2017	Director, Middle East and Africa Division
September 2013	Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Kingdom of Sweden with parallel accreditation to Norway and Latvia
August 2011	Director of the Cyprus Question and Turkey Division
September 2010	Director, Diplomatic Office of the Minister of Foreign Affairs
December 2006	Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the United States of America, with parallel accreditation as High Commissioner to Canada and Permanent Representative to the International Civil Aviation Organisation
August 2002	Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Ireland
August 2000	Director of the Political Division (Multilateral Affairs). Represented Cyprus at the EU-Associate Countries Political Directors meetings, and Senior Official for the Euro-Mediterranean Partnership
September 1996	Deputy Chief of Mission, Washington DC
August 1992	Embassy to Belgium (with accreditation to the Netherlands, Ireland and Luxembourg), and concurrently at the Permanent Delegation of Cyprus to the European Communities

January 1989	Political Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
February 1984	Vice Consul in New York, with concurrent accreditation to the Permanent Mission of Cyprus to the UN. Delegate to successive UN General Assembly Sessions from 1984-1991. Covered Fourth Committee (decolonization), Second Committee (economic) and First Committee (disarmament) issues

EDUCATION

1981-1982	MA International Affairs – Norman Paterson School of International Affairs, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada
1978-1981	BA (Hons) Politics – Lancaster University, United Kingdom

Mr Kakouris was born in 1960. He is married to Mrs Kareen Farrell Kakouris. They have a son and a daughter.